Industry executive Jacob Riney joins leadership team of MYCON General Contractors as vice president;
Riney to oversee firm's healthcare, senior living and hospitality projects

McKinney, TX, August 12, 2016 –MYCON General Contractors has appointed healthcare and hospitality construction veteran Jacob Riney as vice president of the firm. Riney will be responsible for the leadership and management of the firm's healthcare, senior living and hospitality construction projects, including preconstruction services.

Says Doug Talley, MYCON's president, "Jacob Riney has an outstanding track record in the healthcare and hospitality sectors. His oversight of major, complex projects, such as the Statler Hilton Hotel in Dallas and the Baylor Surgical Hospital in Fort Worth, among many other high profile projects, have enabled him to build a stellar reputation. We are very pleased to welcome him to MYCON."

Prior to joining MYCON, Riney spent the past nine years as an executive with a top general contractor in the North Texas region. His projects have included a 'who's who' of healthcare clients, including Scott & White, Baylor, Reliant, Presbyterian, and United Surgical Partners International, among others. His hospitality projects include both new construction and renovation projects, such as The Ritz-Carlton, Dallas and Hyatt East, DFW Airport, Texas.

Riney holds numerous healthcare-related credentials, including the Certified in Healthcare Compliance (CHC) designation, the Health Care Construction Certified (HCC) designation, and Evidence-Based Design Accreditation and Certification (EDAC). He is also a LEED® AP BD+C.

Says Riney, "MYCON has a strong 'team' culture with a great client roster. I am excited about the opportunities to grow the firm's healthcare and hospitality portfolio."
