MYCON General Contractors Promotes Lou Arrieta to Vice President of Estimating

Dallas, TX, January 31, 2019 – MYCON is pleased to announce that it has promoted industry veteran, Lou Arrieta, to vice president of estimating. The announcement was made by Charles R. Myers, president and CEO of MYCON.

“Lou has been instrumental to our successful growth over the last nine years. We look forward to his continued contributions refining our processes that keep our projects on schedule and on budget,” says Myers. “Lou is a proven leader with strong technical and collaborative skills that greatly benefit project team members, subcontractors and clients,” adds Myers.

Arrieta joined MYCON in 2010 and has more than 30 years of experience in commercial construction with an emphasis on estimating and pre-construction services. Throughout his career, he has worked on a variety of projects across multiple markets including industrial, healthcare, institutional, office, retail, religious and hospitality, among others.

During his time with MYCON, Arrieta has worked on more than $800MM in projects, including IKEA Grand Prairie, TX; Headington Heights in McKinney, TX; Tanger Outlets in Ft. Worth, TX; and Walmart Supercenters, Kroger Grocery Stores, Gander Mountain, LA Fitness and Cinemark Theaters throughout Texas.

As vice president, Arrieta is responsible for overseeing the development of estimating staff members, managing bid schedules and workloads, meeting with clients to review new and existing budgets, working closely with architects and engineers during the design phase to maintain budget, incorporating new technologies and methodologies in the estimating process, nurturing client relationships and working with senior management in developing business growth strategies
