MYCON General Contractors Names Timothy Keys as Vice President of Operations

Dallas, TX, October 22, 2018 – MYCON announced that it has named Timothy Keys as vice president of operations. In his role as vice president of operations, Keys will oversee efforts to continuously improve operational performance and to proactively inspire excellence throughout the company.

“Tim’s resume of accomplishments is only surpassed by his proven abilities to help people and organizations improve. His fresh insight on establishing, developing and managing top performing teams make him a great addition to our company,” says Charles R. Myers, president and CEO of MYCON.

Keys will provide executive oversight of all projects from preconstruction through completion and will guide organizational support amongst the firm’s human resources, finance and marketing groups. His leadership and managerial focus will be on improving employee training and mentoring programs, streamlining operations from office to field and maximizing efficiencies in the delivery processes.

“Charlie has assembled a great team of people and has built a great organizational structure and culture. The commitment to both company excellence and individual improvement contributes significantly to the firm’s success and I look forward to being part of the team,” says Keys.

A graduate of Boise State University, Keys brings over 31 years of industry experience to MYCON. During his career, he has performed various roles on over $1 billion worth of construction projects for major clients in markets including hospitality, institutional, multi-family residential, healthcare and commercial office.
