MYCON General Contractors Names Senior Vice President Justin Jeffus as Partner

Dallas, TX, September 23, 2019 – MYCON General Contractors announced today that Justin Jeffus, CDP, LEED AP and senior vice president of the firm, has been named a partner, according to Charles R. Myers, MYCON’s president and CEO.

“Justin Jeffus is a proven leader who has been dedicated to the success of our company and our clients since he joined our firm,” says Myers. “He has earned this partnership through his focus on growing our business, his expertise in delivering quality projects, and his management oversight.” Myers noted that Jeffus will continue his responsibilities as senior vice president overseeing multiple project managers in the retail division and acting as a mentor to others in developing their skills and abilities in order to provide excellent client satisfaction.

During his 15-year tenure with MYCON, Jeffus has worked on many high profile projects for clients, including 380 Headington Heights in McKinney, TX; Tanger Outlet Center in Fort Worth, TX; IKEA in Grand Prairie, TX; Best Buy in Dallas, TX; Equinox Fitness in Plano and Austin, TX; and Frisco Crossing Hollyhock in Frisco, TX. As project manager on MYCON’s first Walmart project, Jeffus has been instrumental in building a successful relationship with the iconic retail company based in Bentonville, Arkansas. MYCON has recently completed its 106th project with Walmart.

Jeffus joined MYCON in 2004 as a project manager. He became vice president of retail services in 2014 and was promoted to senior vice president in 2017. A certified development, design and construction professional (CDP) under the International Council of Shopping Centers criteria, Jeffus was recognized in 2014 as an ICSC Centerbuild 20 Under 40 young professional. He is also a LEED accredited professional. Most recently, Jeffus completed the Urban Land Institute (ULI) North Texas Center for Leadership program. Jeffus is an alumnus of Stephen F. Austin University.

“When I joined MYCON, we had about 30 employees and now we have more than 160,” says Jeffus. “Contributing to MYCON’s growth created a sense of ownership and accomplishment. I am deeply grateful to Charlie Myers for recognizing that participation by naming me a partner. I also look forward to helping all of our team members grow and flourish professionally,” says Jeffus.
