MYCON General Contractors, Inc. Welcomes Director of Marketing

Dallas, Texas, January 4, 2024 – Dallas-based MYCON General Contractors, Inc. (MYCON) welcomed Director of Marketing, Remington May. May will oversee marketing efforts for MYCON’s four offices and collaborate with MYCON's executive team, integrating the company's objectives with its branding and overarching marketing approach to ensure a cohesive and strategic alignment across its endeavors.

“Remington’s proven track record and progressive approach will help us take the MYCON brand to the next level,” said Charles R. Myers, President and CEO of MYCON. “We are excited to have him on board and look forward to the innovative strategies he will bring to our team.”

As Director of Marketing, he will lead a dedicated marketing team, focusing on effectively articulating and amplifying the MYCON brand, culture, and unique voice.

“I have developed a passion for construction and its ability to make a positive impact on the community, which is something MYCON is great at,” said May. “Their focus on their people and commitment to excellence in everything they do has fostered a ‘best place to work’ culture. I am thrilled to be part of this team and help drive MYCON’s growth.”

May brings a wealth of expertise to MYCON, having led teams in various industries for over a decade to bolster business growth through comprehensive marketing strategies. His experience spans social media marketing, video production, event planning, brand development, and content development. He is a graduate of Texas A&M University, holding a Bachelor of Science degree in Communications and Journalism.
