MYCON General Contractors, Inc. Welcomes Multifamily-Focused Executive

Dallas, Texas, April 3, 2024 – Dallas-based MYCON General Contractors, Inc. (MYCON) welcomed Tad Sellman as Vice President. Sellman will spearhead the company's strategic expansion into the multifamily sector, marking a significant milestone in MYCON's growth trajectory.

“Tad's arrival will help us continue to align with the dynamic needs of our clients,” said Charles R. Myers, President and CEO of MYCON. “His expertise and leadership are exactly what we need to steer this new sector toward achieving remarkable success and contributing significantly to our overall growth.”

This strategic initiative highlights MYCON's dedication to broadening its portfolio and adapting to the changing needs of its client base.

“There are no shortcuts to building excellence,” said Sellman. “With its strong client relationships and history of ‘Building the Best,’ MYCON has a solid foundation for the expansion into multifamily construction. I look forward to bringing my industry knowledge to the table and leading these efforts.”

Sellman entered the construction industry as a field engineer, digging ditches for ground-up multifamily projects, and quickly progressed through the ranks. Now, with over 25 years in the multifamily construction industry, Sellman is a distinguished leader with a history of delivering successful projects, utilizing his skills in developing robust client partnerships, managing project teams effectively, and coordinating with trade partners to ensure excellence in execution.
